

Narrative essay questions

Read the information on Narrative Essays and answer the following questions.

Narrative Essays

1. What are you doing when you write a narrative essay?
2. Where can you find the point of a narrative essay?
3. What conventions of storytelling should you include in a narrative essay?
4. What types of details should be included in your narrative essay?
5. What is the purpose of a narrative essay?
6. What are the 6 main facts about what a narrative essay does?
7. What 3 things should the writer of a narrative essay keep in mind?
8. What 3 conventions do you need to keep in mind when writing a narrative essay?
9. Where does the main idea of a narrative essay established?
10. How is the thesis statement different than an argumentative or analytical essay?
11. What are the two orders narrative essays can be told?
12. What it is important for writers to explain about the experiences they are writing about?
13. What are 3 elements in a narrative essay that can help the writer create stronger body paragraphs? Describe how each one helps.
14. What should the reader gain a deeper understanding of once they read the conclusion?
15. Read the sample narrative essays given to help you think of ideas for structure and format. Make a table like the one below. For each essay write down a few things you thought were good about the essay and two things you didn't like under the columns pros and cons.

Name of essay	Pros	Cons
1
2
3
4
5
6

16. Start thinking of experiences you have had that you might be able to use to write a narrative essay. Write down 3 possible ideas for a narrative essay thesis statement.