

I've been learning....

Tatum: In Socials I think learning about our human rights and the great depression. In English I think I've written and written stories.

Thomas: About civil rights and the Absolute True Diary (Sherman Alexcee). In Careers we did research and in science studied the earth.

Trenton: Physics of motion, such as velocity, displacement, and acceleration. In English, I have learned more about poetry and like to make examples of poems. In writing, some paragraphs about stories and novel discussions.

Layla: About mental health, writing, and physics.

Cassandra: About the 20th century (WWI and WWII), professional profiles, work safety, writing stories, paragraphs, and poetry, earth science and physics.

It is important because....

Tatum: Learning to write is important because it made me feel comfortable. It was important to learn [Social studies, history] because it is important to learn about our world and to learn about terrible things that we shouldn't repeat.

Thomas: (Careers) Thinking ahead of a career and so we can learn about Indigenous culture and traditions (English/Socials).

Trenton: I can create a position-time graph to describe motion accurately, and solve slope of a line.

Layla: To understand how to take care of my mental health, so we can write using proper sentences, and be understood.

Cassandra: Learning about how the past affects today, learning about different careers and what I might be interested in. Understanding sentences writing and improving my abilities. Understand how the earth changes and reading graphs.

I've been doing well at...

Tatum: I think I've been doing well at listening and asking questions to help others understand as well.

Thomas: Attending school this year. Doing well in Science and Careers.

Trenton: Physics in science, I enjoy graphing, I wish there was more physics.

Layla: I've been doing well in Ms. Sawka's class.

Cassandra: Coming on time, working well during class time, I try my best and participate in discussions.

My goal(s) for the rest of the term are...

Tatum: To be organized and showing up on time.

Thomas: All A's and using my class time wisely. I am going to study for tests.

Trenton: Improve my attention span to be more focused in class.

Layla: My goal is to show up on time

Cassandra: Not to waste time and to have more confidence.
